

About the We, Wide World
And One Big Brewery
Germany Hips Silver
Russia Refuses to Blow Up
By Agnes Brisbane

WHEN we call "democracy," namely, the rule and control of the many by a selected prosperous few, seems to be giving way to dictatorship, which means a return to absolutism, not dependent, as with kings, on the accident of birth.

Germany, according to dispatches from Berlin, may follow the example of Italy, Turkey and Russia, operating under a one-man dictatorship with Brüning for dictator, backed by the military power of the Reichwehr.

However, events may not move so rapidly. The Germans have been educated in politics and government for years by the Social Democratic party. They will not too hastily abandon their republic or Von Hindenburg, the loyal old man who has ably steered Germany thus far.

In New York city, Prohibition Administrator McCampbell, who seems to take his work seriously, has seized and closed a gigantic brewery, said to have been producing millions of gallons of beer a month for many years.

Gentlemen mentioned an owner of the institution are "Dewey" Madden and "Big Bill" Dwyer. The brewery occupies an entire block in 75th ave., had been operated clandestinely and it seems remarkable that other prohibition agents and politicians have not noticed it on the landscape.

A New York reporter says the place has been well "guarded," anybody who came near it was immediately asked by a policeman, "What are you doing around here?"

It would be interesting to know how many millions in bribes and blackmail that one brewery has paid in the last few years to federal agents, local politicians, political bosses and others.

Acting on a change in the currency laws, Germany's Reichsbank is putting into circulation about two hundred and fifty million dollars worth of silver currency.

The use of silver by the Reichsbank might suggest a return to the old days when silver was used for money.

It is in the power of this government to secure the use of silver in collaboration with other nations, which would be a good thing to do.

Production of copper has increased the output of silver enormously. But that increase would not be greater than the increase in international wealth and demand for money, if men would stop cutting each other's throats and concentrate on industry and prosperity.

As able American, back from Russia, says the Stalin plan will succeed, and won't bother us, because there will be no dumping of goods.

Yankees will need for themselves all they can produce. They are selling now at any price they can get, because they must have money for machinery.

Yesterday Gaston Barbanzon, a great Belgian steel maker, declared that he has lost faith in the American economic policy, and advocated "universal resumption of relations with Russia through an international body to open credits with the Soviet."

SMILE IN YOUR OVER THE LOCKER ROOMS

COURT FIGHT AFTER HIS WIFE

Savin Hill Organization Is Split by the Suspension of Two Members

Bitter dissension among members of the Savin Hill Yacht Club over the suspension of one member and the loss of locker privileges to another, because of their connection with the presence of women in the club locker rooms, has been revealed.

The first indication of the turbulent conditions, which have smoldered for some time finally causing an open breach, came with the filing of a petition for writ of mandamus in Supreme Court by several prominent club members to compel the directors to hold a special meeting in the case.

The men involved are Charles W. Hull, Jr., and his close friend, Louis P. Stevens. According to club members Hull, who is the son of one of the club's former commodores and most prominent members, had come through the locker room with Mrs. Stevens and her two young women. While there Mrs. Stevens had gone to her husband's room and removed a bathing suit, members say.

HULL SUSPENDED

Hull was suspended from the club for 30 days at a meeting held on July 9. At the same meeting Stevens lost his locker privileges for the same period.

The petition for the writ followed efforts of friends of the pair to secure a meeting of the directors to give the men a hearing. It was signed by Hull's friends and five other prominent members of the organization.

The petition sets forth that on July 15 the club members requested a special meeting to be held three days later and that after notices had been sent out the commodore, Commodore himself and a member of the board of directors, sent out word that there would be no meeting.

While little more was contained in the petition, it was admitted by all members last night that suspension of the two men was directly the cause of its being filed with the Supreme Court.

FATHER DEFENDS HULL

The contention of the senior Hull is that there is no such regulation as that under which his son and Stevens were suspended. A former commodore himself and a member of the club for 22 years, he contends that if there were any violations, they were purely technical.

Although Commodore Harris declined to discuss the merits of the charges against Hull and Stevens, he said both were given a hearing on a rule plainly visible in the books. Other members of the club, Stevens lost his locker privileges because, while his wife was in the locker room with the other women, he signed a release, told her of being friendly with Stevens and young Hull, who went to her husband's locker for a bathing suit. If there is any rule applying to such a circumstance as this, the members admitted they were not aware of it.

WELCOMES COURT ACTION

Members supporting the club's discipline Harris is preventing a special meeting because it will mean his ouster as head of the club. Just after he had been served with the writ last night, Harris welcomed any court action and said that if the members were about it, he was in accordance with the by-laws, nothing could prevent a special meeting.

"Both Hull and Stevens were given a hearing on a ruling of this club," Harris said. "The board of directors voted to suspend one and deprive the other of locker privileges for a certain period. I personally have nothing to do with such matters. The meeting board heard the case and it was they who gave out suspension."

Harris charged that both suspended members did not treat the club with proper courtesy. When they appeared, Hull, he declared, conducted himself in a manner of the charges made against him.

The case will be heard before Judge Edward F. Price on July 26.

POLICE SLEEPY

Providence, July 23 (AP)—As a result of an investigation of alleged violations of a ruling alleged to have forced sailors to sleep in the state to sell New Jersey beer, Inspector Leo F. Greene, head of the Worcester police, said that Arthur J. Beach, socialist, that city, and Frank Cataldo, broad street, Eastwood, today were charged with federal offense on a secret indictment charging conspiracy to violate the prohibition act.

The indictment charged the defendants solicited sailors to sleep in Worcester, and other places to purchase beer, and that they refused to do so in case of a second refusal they were threatened that their places would be closed if they did not purchase.

GIRL'S SUIT HIT BY VIOLENCE

Camden, N. J., July 23 (AP)—A young man who gave the name of Philip Weeks and his home as Gloucester, N. J., today testified in the Estorillo divorce suit that he had in the past been friendly with Miss Anna McKenna, 23-year-old mother, who was a witness in the case yesterday.

The Rev. Dr. Camille Estorillo, formerly rector of a Camden church, is suing his wife for divorce on the ground of desertion. The wife, Mrs. Florence McKenna Estorillo, has a counter-claim in Philadelphia court charging unfaithfulness.

Miss McKenna testified that Dr. Estorillo was the father of her two and a half-year-old boy; that she signed a release, and that she never had been friendly with any other man.

The release signed by Miss McKenna was read. It stated she herself and she signed it voluntarily and without compensation. Mrs. Mary Riley, of Camden, testified that the couple with Weeks and the wife, Mrs. McKenna, had been friendly with Weeks and had been friendly with McKenna in the church.

WALKER, HERO OF WAR, NOT SO GOOD AT HOME

Former Wife Attacks Ring Earning; Says Pugilist Frustrated Her Nose

By DAVID P. SENTNER
International News Staff Correspondent.

(PICTURE ON PAGE 1)
New York, July 23—Mickey Walker, who made a new niche for himself by fighting the heaven Jay Sharkey to a draw, today might be a hero to a million fight fans, but he is not so much to his wife.

Mrs. Maude Walker said her pugilist husband with an attachment order today which took away a share of the receipts from his boxing bout with Sharkey.

"Over my objection he expended money she expended for support of their two children."

LOVES AFFAIRS BARRED

Mrs. Walker declared that Mickey put her out of the house in 1929 just five months before their second child, Patricia, was born. Since then he has never seen Mickey, or Patricia, nor has he shown any interest in them, she charged.

Her troubles with Mickey began following his return from Paris in 1927. Mrs. Walker alleges, when he began to fight heavily.

"Over my objection he permitted her to live in a hotel," she said, "he used as a wedding place to celebrate his 'wedding'."

Mrs. Walker claims that in 1929 Mickey put her out of an auto in Staten Island at 2 a. m. and she had to walk miles before reaching her home.

She says he has polo ponies, servants and automobiles.

MICKY HITS AT HOME

At another time, Mrs. Walker charged, Mickey fractured her nose in various love affairs with other women and openly boasted of them, she alleges. "Some have brought me to my knees," she said.

Mrs. Walker told in her papers following his return from Paris in 1927. Mickey hit her in the nose at Summit, N. J., in June 1929.

"I found a letter from one of his sweethearts," she charges. "It was written in very affectionate language. She hinted at suicide."

Mrs. Walker said Mickey has an income in excess of $100,000 annually, and owns an estate at Shoreham, N. J., worth $200,000, of which has been put in his name.

She says he has polo ponies, servants and automobiles.

"You're the Man"

Mariboro, July 23—Six persons were injured today in a triple automobile crash on the Boston Post rd., about 500 feet west of the Framingham-Mariboro line.

According to Mariboro police, the automobile operated by Miss Anna Harris, a school teacher of this city, collided with a machine operated by Carmine Trombetti, of Essex st., Mariboro.

Just as the two cars crashed, a touring car operated by Chester K. Rosa, of Framingham, following the Trombetti car, plied into the other car, throwing the occupants into the street.

Mrs. Thelma Ross, her three children, Melvin, Lester and Betty, Mrs. Amelia Rosa, an aunt 76 years old, were cut and bruised. They were taken to the Mariboro hospital.

GIRL, 4, TOWED BY FRIEND IN ROMANCE

Madalena Marano Is to Marry Man Who Gave Her Violin Lessons

The marriage of a 14-year-old North End girl to a man nearly twice her age will take place Sunday by permission of Suffolk Probate Court, granted today.

The permission follows a romance that followed a meeting over the violin when the girl was six and the bridegroom-to-be was 19 years. Madalena Marano of Thatcher st., North End, is the youthful bride-to-be, and Antonio Barbo, 37, of Commercial st., North End, the bridegroom.

Six months ago the couple sought permission of the court to marry, arriving with the consent of parents and leaving with the admonition that the girl must reach the age of 14.

She celebrated that birthday yesterday.

Barbo said he met the Marano girl when her father, Carmine Marano, was in the court to give the girl violin lessons.

"We liked each other then and it grew into love," I guess," he said today. "She is a home girl and she is just like a daughter."

"Most of the girls today are so frivolous that I don't like them for it."

Mrs. and Mr. Marano accompanied the couple to court yesterday and testified to their permission for the ceremony.

SIX COURT IN TRIPLE CRASH

Mariboro, July 23—Six persons were injured today in a triple automobile crash on the Boston Post rd., about 500 feet west of the Framingham-Mariboro line.

According to Mariboro police, the automobile operated by Miss Anna Harris, a school teacher of this city, collided with a machine operated by Carmine Trombetti, of Essex st., Mariboro.

Just as the two cars crashed, a touring car operated by Chester K. Rosa, of Framingham, following the Trombetti car, plied into the other car, throwing the occupants into the street.

Mrs. Thelma Ross, her three children, Melvin, Lester and Betty, Mrs. Amelia Rosa, an aunt 76 years old, were cut and bruised. They were taken to the Mariboro hospital.

CARRIES PLANK AS LIFE SAVER

Providence, R. I., July 23—The Colonial liner General Warfield decked here today carrying in her infirmary Charles Odoquist, 27, of New York, who, carrying a plank to keep him afloat, sprang into the sea from the ship's rail off Narragansett night.

Odoquist, who said he was a sailor, along away on the liner in New York. Discovered by the ship's crew, he was brought to his hiding place, and declared he did not remember boarding the boat.

He was picked up by a lifeboat.

FORMER HARVARD STUDENT SLAIN IN PLOT ON RICH CHINESE

BOMBS BURST AT OFFICIALS IN SHANGHAI

Minister T. V. Soong Escapes Death; Secretary Killed by Rain of Bullets

Shanghai, July 23 (AP)—Two bombs and a fusillade of bullets directed at T. V. Soong, finance minister and vice-chairman of the Nationalist government, missed their mark here today, but fatally injured Soong's secretary, Tang Yu-loh.

Six other Chinese were injured, some of them apparently by Soong's bodyguard in answering the fire of the unidentified assailants.

The attack was launched just after Soong and his party arrived by train from Nanjing. The bombs failed to explode when thrown, but one of them later was discharged when picked up by a soldier. He was possibly fatally wounded. A Cantonese student was arrested later in connection with the incident.

GRADUATE OF HARVARD
Tang Yu-loh was 32 years old and was married recently. He formerly was a student at both Harvard and Yale universities.

Soong, a pillar of the much-harassed Nationalist government, was entering an automobile when the group attacked. Two bullets hit Tang Yu-loh, who was near Soong.

Another passenger on the train was Mamoru Shigemitsu, charge d'affaires of the Japanese legation in Nanjing, whose presence at the station caused reports that he was being one of the intended victims.

LIFE WAS MENACED

The finance minister's life was threatened even before the rain of bullets. Since then he always has carried a pistol.

Only 17 years old, Soong is a graduate of Harvard University and one of the leading financiers of China. He is a member of a family said to be one of the wealthiest in the far eastern republic.

The records of Harvard University show no Tang Yu-loh as a student in recent years. Tang Yu-loh, whose address is given in the Harvard Alumni Directory as 2100, 10th Avenue, Shanghai, attended the college from 1917 to 1919.

2 MORE RAGERS RADIO TO GUIDE REACH GOAL LINDY ON FLIGHT

Plymouth, Eng., July 23 (AP)—The transatlantic racing yacht Landfall and Highland Light raced up Plymouth harbor today to finish second and third in the 300-mile voyage from Newport, R. I., with the scratch boat, Landfall, finishing 10 minutes ahead of her smaller rival.

The unofficial times were 4:20 and 4:29 p. m. (11:20 and 11:30 a. m. E. S. T.).

The race was won Monday by the 35-foot yawl Dorade, designed and sailed by Olin Stephens of Scarsdale, N. Y. She finished in 17 days 11 minutes.

Landfall is owned and sailed by Paul Hammond of New York and leaves away over 13 hours time ahead of E. S. T. Wolf's Highland Light. The latter therefore will gain second place on corrected time unless some of the six boats to which she gave allowances come in to defeat her.

The sailing time of the two yachts was approximately 10 days 22 hours.

Woman Fined in Beach Liquor Case
Hingham, July 23—As the result of a raid by Hull police on the complaint of residents, Miss Vera Kelly of Edgewater rd., Nantasket Beach, was fined $100 today by Judge Edward B. Pratt in the Second District Court on the charge of keeping and exposing liquor for sale.

Pvt. Richard Nordstrom of Worcester, the second victim of the accidental shot at Camp Devens, is now at Fort Banks. Picture shows his removal from the station hospital.

DEVENS BETH BOARD MEETS

Camp Devens, July 23—Responsibility for the death of Pvt. Thomas Gulliford yesterday will be determined by an investigating board and the report will be in the hands of Maj. Gen. E. F. Fish today.

The board is composed of Maj. Roy W. Smith, Maj. James Powers and Capt. William F. Bigelow.

It was appointed by Col. Edgar C. Erickson, commanding the 181st Infantry, the dead youth having been a member of Company C of that regiment.

Private Gulliford was accidentally shot through the head when a machine gun was being moved on the range and Private Richard I. Nordstrom was wounded in the right thigh by the same bullet.

The dead guard's body was escorted to the main gate of camp for its journey to his Worcester home by his entire regiment, together with Gen. Fish and Brig. Gen. John D. Murphy and their staffs.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning, with a full military mass at St. Bernard's Church, Worcester.

The entire company will form a military escort, augmenting the staff of Col. Erickson, the band and a firing squad will officiate at St. John's Cemetery.

Today in Kendall Grove, in the 181st area, the entire regiment attended a special mass of William J. Private Gulliford, the Rev. Charles P. Matsumphy, chaplain of the regiment, who is curate at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Worcester, officiated.

AUSTRIAN PLEA ON TRADE PACT
The Hague, Holland, July 23 (AP)—Ratification of the Mellon-Berenger agreement in which France agreed to pay in part the money she borrowed from the United States was a French constitutional provision, Dr. Erich Kaufmann told the World Court today.

Arguing in behalf of the Austro-German customs union, Dr. Kaufmann, Austrian attorney, cited the agreement in support of his claim that certain clauses in the customs agreement might be without authority, but were not without international precedent.

Waiting for the doctors to get the bullet out and have it over, Nordstrom was fortunate that the bullet was not in line with his head. This is a closeup as he was on his way to the military hospital at Winthrop, where he is being treated. (Staff photos.)

6 WILLS BARED IN ESTATE OF DOWAGER

Number of Testaments May Throw Estate Into Courts for Final Disposition

Washington, July 23 (AP)—Six conflicting wills of the late Mrs. Mary T. Henderson, wealthy dowager, have been filed for probate in the District of Columbia Supreme Court, and the disposition of the "Henderson millions" today was in doubt.

Because Mrs. Henderson made so many wills in an effort to prevent her disinherited foster grandchild from obtaining any of her vast estate, attorneys expressed the opinion that all of them might be invalidated, and the estate distributed under the laws of descent.

In that case, Mrs. Beatrice Henderson Whelan, who was for many years thought to be a blood granddaughter of the mistress of "Boundary Castle," might get the largest part of the estate, estimated at between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000.

In the last will filed for probate, Mrs. Henderson, who died last week at Bar Harbor, Me., said her adopted granddaughter became residuary through act of her husband instead of by quelling over the dowager's efforts to give a residence to the government for an official vice-president's home.

In a will dated November 10, 1920, Mrs. Henderson cut off Mrs. Whelan with $100, although a trust of $250,000, she retained earlier for her granddaughter was held irrevocable.

POPE SUMMONS CARDINALS IN 5 CONFLICTS

Vatican City, July 23.—A special pontifical of all the 28 members of the Sacred College of Cardinals now in Rome was called by Pope Pius XI. today to discuss matters of current importance to the church, including conflicts in Italy, Spain, Mexico, Lithuania and China.

His Holiness called the meeting for the primary purpose of discussing the controversy between church and state in Italy over the education of Catholic youth.

In addition, the pontifical discussed the situation in Spain, where the church has been shorn of its power by the Republican government, as well as persecution of Catholic missionaries in China. New limitations of the rights of the church in Mexico also was discussed.

The session here in the Vatican library was hurriedly called and lasted nearly three hours in the greatest secrecy. No statement was issued after adjournment.

It was believed the situation in Spain was particularly prominent in the discussion because of a report by the Cardinal-Archbishop of Carracona who flew from Barcelona to see the Pope and returned Spain by airplane yesterday.

It was believed the cardinals had been called into conference also because of recent criticism in Italy that the Pope had been acting independently without consulting them.

The cardinals attending included Cardinal Secretary of State Pacelli, and the former secretary, Pietro Gasparri.

POISON GAS WAR UPHELD

London, July 23.—Use of death gas and chemicals in warfare are "practically unimpeachable," far from being the most terrible form of warfare, they are the most humane, according to Prof. Charles E. Parsons, prominent American scientist.

"Much that is talked about death gas being used for shattering cities is perfect nonsense," he said. "A tremendous amount of sensational material is put out in reference to chemical warfare which has no real basis in fact."

"I do not believe that the chemists of the world anywhere are making any special effort to make many people imagine they are, to develop new forms of poison gas for the next war."

"All warfare is terrible, and I want to see it done away with. But if we must have warfare, then chemical warfare is going to be the least terrible aspect of it. If you want to stop 100,000 men from crossing a river, chemical methods will do it more effectively, with less death and suffering, than anything else."

Maine Indians in Inter-Tribal Rites

Bangor, Me., July 23 (AP).—Graves and their squaws from the Penobscot and Passamaquoddy tribes of Indians, only two tribes in Maine, gathered on one of their ancient hunting grounds on the bank of the Penobscot river today for their first inter-tribal ceremony.

The program included the ancient powwow rite, the feather dance, the eagle dance, the scalp and arrow dance, the shawnee dance, the ceremonial and tree dragging.

Speedboating Holds Wales' Interest; to Race Two Boats

London, July 23 (INS).—Although his interest in flying remains unabated, the Prince of Wales is now taking lessons in outboard motor boat racing. Two special racing motorboats are being built for him.

The type of craft which the prince has ordered is known as an "outboard hydroplane" and is capable of a speed of 40 miles an hour. The boat is built around a specially designed draught. It is designed purely for racing on still or comparatively still water.

During the past few weeks the prince has been receiving lessons in the management of outboard racing craft from Capt. John Palethorpe, an English racing expert.

BEACON HILL

—by—

Betty Alden

WE LET THE TOWN BEHIND YESTERDAY FOR OUR first dip—it takes a bit of cogitating before we even dip—in the oil of devil sea. Whoever gave it that name read our mind exactly, not being one of those who make a god of health, swimming, diving, chortling and the like. In fact, at the mere mention of the word diving tears push from our eyes. How well we remembered our first diving lesson in somebody's marble pool with dolphins perched about for deep sea effect and cold, clear water—so cold and clear you couldn't miss the marble bottom—and we didn't.

"Why, it's just as easy," urged some practical joker. "Just throw your feet over your head and let go." We did—trusting in our neighbor as ourselves—but evidently our feet are the kind that don't know what our head is doing, or are so firmly fast in the clay of life they can't be pulled out. They flip over our head like the tail of a fish—they did not and just too late we realized we were off without a parachute. Try it. We hit on all fours and we still have what was once a good nose, one fairly good ear, the other a little blotto, and time only will reveal what we are going to die of, but what we know it won't be diving off a 20-story building.

On the Warm Sands of Singing Beach

WE DIGRESS! SINGING BEACH WAS OUR DESTINATION and what didn't ooze out on the drive down arrived to hear the beachy sing. If there ever was an over-advertised real estate story, that is the world's best. All our dreams of lying on the smooth, warm sand while lulled to sleep with songs of the sea—don't be silly. If that sand can sing then we are Cleopatra. And if it did sing we would have been so scared we would probably have tried to swim the Atlantic.

AFTER DONNING OUR BABY blue swim suit, which in spite of a good salaried makes us look like Marie Dressler, we remembered we were the "snoo" editor and the these skeletons which were floating past us might be the Prince of Bismarck and his hostess of the morning after, so with a few left strokes we pursued them. No luck. It was not a job and her destiny taking to water and as all debts look alike to us in their water wings, we cannot announce who it is, was or will be.

WHEN THE SKELETONS emerged we did recognize a few—"Shoo" Beveridge, the Humphreys, O'Connell and Zet, Francis Blake, and one of the Copple-Humphreys. They were evidently waiting the girls to arrive but we left before that because it was quite warm, and, to be honest, and afternoon tea was calling.

AFTER GREETING OUR

charming host, and sinking down into a cozy glider which was on a wide platform overlooking the ocean, we exchanged stories, scandal and such, but all we have for you, dear readers, is that the O'Connell family is breaking up. It was not a happy ending, but the Humphreys are the salt of the earth and Mrs. Humphreys—who was Eleanor Laighton before her second marriage—is a talented musician. Many delightful evenings are enjoyed at their home on Pinckney st., where they invite their many friends for musical treats and invitations to Frances Laighton's parties will be much sought after.

SALE OF LABRADOR ARTICLES TO TAKE PLACE AT MANCHESTER

Engagements of Interest to Boston

The engagement of Dante Virgil Leland, grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Francis Leland of Boston, to Miss Mary Barbara Spencer of New York is announced by Miss Spencer's mother, Mrs. Harvey Spencer of 145 East 43rd st., New York.

Mr. Leland, who resides in New York and Florence, Italy, is a son of the late Col. Francis J. Leland of New York and Florence. He attended Harvard University and served as a captain in the Signal Corps during the World War.

Miss Spencer is a descendant of Peter Van Brugh Livingston, president of the First Provisional Congress, and a descendant of Johnathan Edwards.

Two other engagements were announced in New York by Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey Cowley Tiffany of Douglaston, Long Island, N. Y. They announced the engagement of their sister, Miss Joan Miriam Crowley of Brookline to Mr. Viggo Axel Brandt-Erichsen of Jaffrey, N. H. and Copenhagen.

Mr. Erichsen is a sculptor and is best known in this country for his work on the Jeffery war memorial. Mr. and Mrs. Tiffany also announced the engagement of Miss Carmen Stella Fernandez de Cornejo, daughter of Sr. Marone J. Cornejo and Sr. Maria M. de Cornejo of Buenos Aires, to Mr. John Edward Crowley, Jr., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Edward Crowley of Boston.

MRS. FAVERSHAM

MISS LE BOUTILLIER

Mrs. William Faversham of Concord, and her friend, Miss Florence Le Boutillier, invaded the tennis courts on the North Shore this week as players and spectators. Society folk from all parts of the North Shore flocked to this annual Essex County tournament which always draws crowded galleries.

Studio Loaned by Miss Lane for Benefit

Miss Catherine Lane is very kindly lending her summer studio, The Chimney, at Manchester, on Wednesday, July 29, for a sale of Labrador articles, made by the industrial department of the Green-fell Mission. Many North Shore residents are already familiar with these, through their patronage of the Green-fell shop, opened for two weeks in May on Newbury st., and managed by Miss Grace Chubb, with the assistance of several of this year's debutantes.

Among the attractive assortment of handmade products are hooked rugs of various sizes and designs in many different northern scenes, such as polar bears on an ice-panting, green, etc. The exquisitely woven and embroidered linen bags, bed-spreads, runners and luncheon-covers, the brightly painted and cleverly jointed, movable toys that would be a delight to any small child, the tiny carved ivory figures, and the "Dolphins," made famous when worn on the Byrd expedition to the South Pole, thought the Labrador people have been working them for some time.

They are a very full pull-over blouse with a hood edged in a deep border of fur to cover the head made in green, gray, white and buff, and green with one of their brightly colored, woolen scarfs tied jauntily around the waist.

The beauty of them is that they are not too warm to wear here for winter sports, as they are entirely well suited for very light.

The feature of the sale is the reduction on the standard size rug, for which you will now only pay $10, instead of $15. This special value will continue throughout the summer.

Miss Lane, a graduate of several years of the May school and a member of the Junior League, is a gentle-

Model Yachts on Display at Fair

A display of model yachts is the chief attraction of the charity fair being held today by St. John's Episcopal Church on the church grounds at Beverly Farms. The fair is under the direction of Mrs. Russell Bradley.

Several valuable models are among those on exhibit in the parish house. Some of those displayed are owned by Superior Court Judge Loring, Commodore William T. Alrich and several from the Peabody Museum of Salem.

There is also a man-of-war from the United States and a signal ship from Dreyer's flagship at Manila.

A cup will be given for the best model yacht. The judges are Fred J. Phipps of the Boston Model Yacht Club and Francis Herschelt of Marlborough.

GERMANS GET TIME

will satisfied with the labor of the conference. The function of the meeting is to bring down the finances of Germany and then endeavor to bring about a more stable condition of the rest of the world.

MELLON "SATISFIED"
Secretary Mellon said later: "I am satisfied that the conference has achieved results which will be most helpful in restoring the financial stability of Germany."

"That stability has been shaken by a lack of confidence which is not justified by Germany's internal economic situation."

"German industries are well organized, and, given time and reasonably favorable conditions will again assert themselves and show the inherent strength of Germany's industrial arm."

"The machinery set up by the conference will greatly assist in meeting immediate difficulties and permit a study as regards further capital and assistance for rehabilitation of Germany's industry."

Dion Grandi, the Italian foreign minister, said:

"I am very happy over the result."

British Prime Minister MacDonald said:

"We are very well pleased. An agreement between seven powers is not easy to get, but it has been reached, and it will be of great importance in helping Germany."

REICHSMAN GOING TO BERLIN

All the delegates attended the royal garden party at Buckingham Palace this afternoon.

Secretary Mellon said he would leave for Berlin shortly after the German's departure tomorrow.

Secretary Mellon is not going to Berlin. He will return in Cap Ferret, in the south of France, to join his family.

Premier MacDonald will go to Berlin Monday to join the other foreign ministers.

The French representatives will return to Paris tomorrow and Premier Renoult and associates will return to Brussels.

Foreign Minister Dims Grandi of Italy will leave for Rome Sunday. Japan was represented at the conference by her London ambassador.

The conference's achievements were summarized in a formal declaration as follows:

"To insure maintenance of the financial stability of Germany, essential to the whole world, the governments represented at the conference are ready to cooperate as far as lies in their power to restore confidence."

"The governments are ready to recommend for consideration of the financial institutions of their respective countries the following proposals relating to the immediate situation."

TERMS OF AGREEMENT.
1.—That the Central Bank credit of $100,000,000 recently granted to the Reichsbank under supplies of the Bank for International Settlements be renewed at its maturity for three months.

2.—That concerted measures be taken by the financial institutions of the different countries with a view to maintaining the volume of credits they already have extended to Germany.

3.—That the Bank for International Settlements be invited to set up without delay a committee of representatives nominated by the governments of the Central banks interested to require into the immediate further credit needs of Germany and to study the possibilities of converting a portion of short-term credits into long-term credits.

4.—The conference noted with interest the communication from Chancellor Brüning relative to a joint guarantee recently placed by German industry at the disposal of the Gold Discount Bank. The conference is of the opinion that a guarantee of this description should make it possible to provide a sound basis for resumption of normal operation of international credit."

Despite failure to get a new loan Chancellor Brüning is prepared to lay before Secretary Mellon and Mellon at a dinner in their honor tonight a plan for such a loan which he believes was not sufficiently explained when it was announced in Berlin by Dr. Hans Luther, president of the Reichsbank.

It consists of a pledge by 1929 of Germany's largest industrial, banking and shipping concerns jointly to underwrite a deficiency guarantee.

Foundation Laid to Help Germany, Says Hoover

Washington, July 23 (AP).—President Hoover said today the London conference had "laid sound foundations for the establishment of stability in Germany," and added:

"The major problem is one of freeing the banking and credit conditions and can best be solved by the voluntary cooperation of the bankers of the world rather than by governments with conflicting interests. Such a basis of cooperation is assured."

"The program implements the suspension of inter-governmental debts already in effect. The combined effect should enable the German people with their resources, industry and courage, to overcome the temporary difficulties and restore their credit."

"The program contributes to expedite recovery from worldwide depression through the overcoming of the most important elements in the crisis affecting Central Europe."

"The world is indebted to President Mellon, to Messrs. Mellon, Grandi and other governmental representatives in this conference. The conference has demonstrated a fine spirit of consultation and consideration among nations that will have lasting benefits in establishment of stability."

The President forwarded telegrams of congratulation to Secretaries Mellon and Grandi, who had signed the American negotiations in London.

Dry Agents Accused of Violating Laws

Washington, July 23 (INS).—Despite the program of the Department of Justice for "lawful administration of the law," charges that prohibition agents have violated the search and seizure provisions of the Constitution continue to reach the docket of the Supreme Court.

Petitions on file today include claims that agents overstepped their legal bounds in widely separated parts of the country.

Bank of England Falls to Stop Exit of Gold

London, July 23 (INS).—The action of the Board of Directors of the Bank of England in announcing an increase in the bank's discount rate from 2½ to 3½ per cent today failed to stem the heavy gold drain from England's gold reserves.

A total of $27,131,555 was withdrawn in most today's foreign exchange requirements.

Reichstag Council Upholds Brüning

Berlin, July 23 (AP).—The Reichstag Council of Elders today gave a motion for the convocation of the Reichstag and thereby gave the Brüning government another brief breathing space in which to negotiate definite assistance for distressed Germany.

The motion was offered to the council steering committee of the Reichstag by German Socialists, Nationalists and National Socialists.

They were to muster only 173 of the necessary 267 votes.

Professor Goes to Reno for Liberty

Reno, Nev., July 23 (INS).—Ralph Harzer McKee, professor of chemistry at Columbia University, New York, today had filed suit for divorce against Mary N. McKee.

The couple were married in Cambridge, Ill., in 1905 and have two grown daughters. He charged cruelty, unlawfully habits for five years and various indignities.

Boston Man Dies in Ship Accident at Sea

Charleston, S. C., July 23.—The army transport Konoewi made port here with the body of James R. Gorman, 44, of Boston, a deck engineer, who was killed at sea in an engine room accident.

Fewer Germans Idle

Berlin, July 23 (INS).—The number of unemployed in Germany on July 15 was 2,556,000, which represented a decrease of 5000 from the number idle on June 30.

Police Accused of Balking Dry Raiders

New York, July 23 (AP).—Federal authorities and police Commissioner McGuire today began an investigation of charges by Prohibition Administrator McComb that uniformed policemen interfered with the federal raid on the 11,000,000 Phoenix Brewery seized Tuesday.

United States Atty. McGuire indicated that a federal grand jury would inquire into the ownership of the block square plant.

So. Boston Padlock Asked by Huttman

Police Commissioner Huttman has begun proceedings in Suffolk court seeking to abate a nuisance he claims exists at 77 at South Boston. The owner of the property, according to the petition, is Jeanette W. Whitehill of Watertown. The place is said to be occupied by John Coffey, James Faria and Thomas Barry.

Huttman alleges the premises are used for keeping, sale and manufacture of intoxicating liquor.

The men, spectators said, reached into the interior of the mail boxes and extracted letters with long tweezers. They first before onlookers could question them.

GERMANS GET TIME

will satisfied with the labor of the conference. The function of the meeting is to bring down the finances of Germany and then endeavor to bring about a more stable condition of the rest of the world.

MELLON "SATISFIED"
Secretary Mellon said later: "I am satisfied that the conference has achieved results which will be most helpful in restoring the financial stability of Germany."

"That stability has been shaken by a lack of confidence which is not justified by Germany's internal economic situation."

"German industries are well organized, and, given time and reasonably favorable conditions will again assert themselves and show the inherent strength of Germany's industrial arm."

"The machinery set up by the conference will greatly assist in meeting immediate difficulties and permit a study as regards further capital and assistance for rehabilitation of Germany's industry."

Dion Grandi, the Italian foreign minister, said:

"I am very happy over the result."

British Prime Minister MacDonald said:

"We are very well pleased. An agreement between seven powers is not easy to get, but it has been reached, and it will be of great importance in helping Germany."

REICHSMAN GOING TO BERLIN

All the delegates attended the royal garden party at Buckingham Palace this afternoon.

Secretary Mellon said he would leave for Berlin shortly after the German's departure tomorrow.

Secretary Mellon is not going to Berlin. He will return in Cap Ferret, in the south of France, to join his family.

Premier MacDonald will go to Berlin Monday to join the other foreign ministers.

The French representatives will return to Paris tomorrow and Premier Renoult and associates will return to Brussels.

Foreign Minister Dims Grandi of Italy will leave for Rome Sunday. Japan was represented at the conference by her London ambassador.

The conference's achievements were summarized in a formal declaration as follows:

"To insure maintenance of the financial stability of Germany, essential to the whole world, the governments represented at the conference are ready to cooperate as far as lies in their power to restore confidence."

"The governments are ready to recommend for consideration of the financial institutions of their respective countries the following proposals relating to the immediate situation."

TERMS OF AGREEMENT.
1.—That the Central Bank credit of $100,000,000 recently granted to the Reichsbank under supplies of the Bank for International Settlements be renewed at its maturity for three months.

2.—That concerted measures be taken by the financial institutions of the different countries with a view to maintaining the volume of credits they already have extended to Germany.

3.—That the Bank for International Settlements be invited to set up without delay a committee of representatives nominated by the governments of the Central banks interested to require into the immediate further credit needs of Germany and to study the possibilities of converting a portion of short-term credits into long-term credits.

4.—The conference noted with interest the communication from Chancellor Brüning relative to a joint guarantee recently placed by German industry at the disposal of the Gold Discount Bank. The conference is of the opinion that a guarantee of this description should make it possible to provide a sound basis for resumption of normal operation of international credit."

Despite failure to get a new loan Chancellor Brüning is prepared to lay before Secretary Mellon and Mellon at a dinner in their honor tonight a plan for such a loan which he believes was not sufficiently explained when it was announced in Berlin by Dr. Hans Luther, president of the Reichsbank.

It consists of a pledge by 1929 of Germany's largest industrial, banking and shipping concerns jointly to underwrite a deficiency guarantee.

Foundation Laid to Help Germany, Says Hoover

Washington, July 23 (AP).—President Hoover said today the London conference had "laid sound foundations for the establishment of stability in Germany," and added:

"The major problem is one of freeing the banking and credit conditions and can best be solved by the voluntary cooperation of the bankers of the world rather than by governments with conflicting interests. Such a basis of cooperation is assured."

"The program implements the suspension of inter-governmental debts already in effect. The combined effect should enable the German people with their resources, industry and courage, to overcome the temporary difficulties and restore their credit."

"The program contributes to expedite recovery from worldwide depression through the overcoming of the most important elements in the crisis affecting Central Europe."

"The world is indebted to President Mellon, to Messrs. Mellon, Grandi and other governmental representatives in this conference. The conference has demonstrated a fine spirit of consultation and consideration among nations that will have lasting benefits in establishment of stability."

The President forwarded telegrams of congratulation to Secretaries Mellon and Grandi, who had signed the American negotiations in London.

Bank of England Falls to Stop Exit of Gold

London, July 23 (INS).—The action of the Board of Directors of the Bank of England in announcing an increase in the bank's discount rate from 2½ to 3½ per cent today failed to stem the heavy gold drain from England's gold reserves.

A total of $27,131,555 was withdrawn in most today's foreign exchange requirements.

Reichstag Council Upholds Brüning

Berlin, July 23 (AP).—The Reichstag Council of Elders today gave a motion for the convocation of the Reichstag and thereby gave the Brüning government another brief breathing space in which to negotiate definite assistance for distressed Germany.

The motion was offered to the council steering committee of the Reichstag by German Socialists, Nationalists and National Socialists.

They were to muster only 173 of the necessary 267 votes.

FRANCO-SOVIET TRADE PACT FORECAST

Paris, July 22 (AP)—Non-aggression pact and a commercial working agreement between France and Russia were forecast in international circles today.

It was learned that at the suggestion of Moscow the French Foreign Office is actively engaged in drafting the terms of the non-aggression pact as a supplement to France's recent action annulling her divorce against Russian disarming, especially of wheat.

Russia has denounced her decree which prevented purchases in France. It is understood a Russian commission is due in Paris soon to negotiate the placing of large orders.

These recent developments are understood to have two angles looked upon as significant in furthering Aristide Briand's project to establish a United States of Europe based on reciprocity of interests and cooperation.

One is that Russia will endeavor to negotiate a non-aggression pact with Poland, France's ally on Russia's eastern frontier. The other is a plan to start discussions between France and Russia for Russian recognition of the legal existence of Russian bonds held by the French.

When and if the non-aggression pact and the commercial agreement are signed, negotiations will begin for adjustment of the problem of Russia's pre-war debts to France.

4-PARTY RAIL PLAN FOR R. I.

Providence, R. I., July 23 (AP)—The railroad committee of the Providence Chamber of Commerce, in a report today, opposed recommendation of the Boston & Maine and the New Haven railroads as recommended by the New England Governors railroad committee.

Instead, the committee recommended adoption of the four-party plan, with allocation of the New Haven railroad to the Pennsylvania system, and amalgamation of the Boston & Maine with the Chesapeake & Ohio-Norfolk plant system.

"This committee deems it essential," the report said, "that the competitive position between the New Haven and the Boston & Maine should not only be maintained, but greater competition between, and improved service over, these roads should be created if possible. Such improved service would result under the Rhode Island plan, whereby the New Haven Railroad would be amalgamated with the Pennsylvania system and the Boston & Maine Railroad would be amalgamated with the Chesapeake & Ohio-Norfolk plant system."

"The city of Providence and the State of Rhode Island have had, for more than 25 years, the experience of being served by only one railroad—an experience which has been most unsatisfactory. The merger of the New Haven and the Boston & Maine would place many other important industrial centers in New England in the unenviable position in which business and industry in Rhode Island have found itself; namely, without competitive railroad service."

10,000 Zulus See Chief
Wed 200th Wife

Capetown, July 23 (INS)—Ten thousand Zulus gathered at the royal kraal, 200 miles from Durban, when Solomon Dintsisu, the paramount chief, wedded his 200th wife.

The ceremony occupied three days and consisted of feasting on hundreds of cattle, beer-drinking and dancing.

Curtis Going Back

Beware of pads "just like Kotex"

May look the same...
but how were they made?
Where? By whom?

The words "Just Like Kotex" should be a danger signal to every purchaser of sanitary protection. They cannot be true.

A pad, to be like Kotex, would have to be made in the Kotex factory. Unique, patented machinery makes Kotex from start to finish. Hands never touch it. Rigid cleanliness prevails. Materials used are superior, made especially for Kotex. The only way to make a pad like Kotex is to make Kotex.

Take no chances. Specify genuine Kotex. Accept no substitute of whose maker you know nothing. You know Kotex is safe. Hospitals used more than 10,000,000 pads last year. These choices should be yours. Kotex is adjustable. May be worn on either side. Stay soft.

Woman Gets Noted Plane to Fly Across Ocean

Liberty, N. Y., July 22 (AP)—plane Liberty, which carried Otto Hellig and Holger Holthe across the Atlantic to Germany last month, is to fly the ocean again, with its new woman owner, Mrs. Umberto Loffredo, as the pilot.

She bought the big Boffano ship from Hilbig for a flight to Rome, she hopes to be the first woman to pilot a plane across the ocean.

She paid Liberty's flying photographer, just returned home from Europe, $25,000 for the plane, a thousand more than he paid to have it especially built for his trip.

CHINESE BEAUTY WILL BE STARRED IN SIX MULTICOLOR PICTURES

Caddo Plans Shanghai Series

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
Universal Feature Motion Picture Editor

Copyright, 1931, by Universal Feature, Inc., Los Angeles, July 23—The Howard Hughes publicity department didn't have to talk long to convince me that Butterfly Wu, scheduled to make six pictures for Caddo, is really a beauty. I saw so many Orientals in Honolulu who would have photographed like Anna May Wong 't it surprising we haven't had more Chinese actresses.

This butterfly Wu is called the Mary Pickford of China and that, my friends, is the compliment of highest praise. While I suppose that a great deal of these foreign beauties will be filmed in the United States, I think it is a pity that we have not more of them here. I am sure that the Chinese actress, if she is as good as she is said to be, will be a great asset to the screen.

Seen and heard: The Margaret Livingston-Paul Whiteman marriage should take place any day now. Margaret has gone to Chicago to join Paul, who is touring an engagement there. She brought herself a troupe of the best world in up to the minute style and she is said to be attracting plenty of attention at the Edgewater Beach Hotel where she is living. The return of John Colton over Pola Negri's return to the screen sounds like a pleasant note. Pola was recorded over the East Side in New York by John Colton and shown some of the scene side of life by the author.

Benapha of Hollywood collected at random: NORMA TALMADGE, large gray hat, gray dress and shoes and bag to match, stopping to chat with FLORENCE REED and EDWIN KNOPE at the Embassy. FLORENCE REED, 30 pounds heavier, wearing a big picture hat and a black dress, removed the superfluous weight. MRS. PEG TADMADGE made a marvelous recovery from her operation. JOHN COLTON, LAURA HOPE CREWELL and J. DOUGLAS ACOSTA, an interesting group, hunched at the Embassy. CRUCK REISNER introduced at the Los Angeles Stadium, Eastside, getting a big hand. NORMA SHEARER and IRVING THIRLBY, who have been together since their own house is ready. MRS. REED MARX displaying two ribbons won at the Santa Barbara dog show by her son-in-law, MARGARET ETTINGER and MRS. TADMADGE KARLUS, leaving for a visit to Cape Cod and Saratoga. That's all today. See you tomorrow!

STARS OF NEW SCREEN ATTRACTIONS

Maurice Chevalier and Claudette Colbert are shown in a scene from "The Smiling Lieutenant," which opens August 1 at the Olympia, Uptown and Fenway. "The Smiling Lieutenant" has been heralded as Maurice Chevalier's greatest success and has been shown at packed houses in New York and on the coast. Claudette Colbert is also one of the stage and screen's brightest stars.

Martha Sleeper, one of the stars of the new screen attractions, is shown in a scene from "The Smiling Lieutenant," which opens August 1 at the Olympia, Uptown and Fenway.

Vaudeville and Movies on Rialto

By HARRIS MORGAN

A special feature show by Francis Resnault will be put on at the Rialto tomorrow afternoon. Resnault's wardrobe is valued at $20,000. It is announced in his show he will display all of his costly attire. Assisting him will be five girls recruited from Bee and Ray Gorman's revue.

For the engagement of Jean Marlow in "Goddie" at the Modern commencing tomorrow, the management announces that the first 15 young ladies with natural blonde tresses at the box office each morning will be admitted free.

Robert Montgomery's second starring picture, "The Man in Possession," is the new screen attraction opening tomorrow at Loew's Orpheum.

Ramon Novarro in "Son of India," based on the F. Marion Crawford novel, "Mr. Isaacs," will open at Loew's State tomorrow.

Thomas Meighan in "Young Rittner" and Charles Fox in "A Free Soul," will be the attractions for the remainder of the week at the Rialto.

With several selected acts on the program, Bowdoin Square, beginning today presents two picture features—Robert Woolsey in "Everything's Ready," and "Meet Me With Laura," La. Plans, Lew Cody and Joan Marsh.

Filmland's Fair Sex Stirs He-Man to Raptures

By HARLEIGH SCHULTZ

Of all the glamorous folk of Hollywood, Marion Davies stands supreme! That is the declaration of George Bancroft, who knows almost the entire movie "Who's Who." Discussion of film personalities made pleasant another interesting view with the cinema's king among men.

Expert Joins Columbia Forces

This thing called television, not meaning to be disrespectful by so terming it, involves a great deal more than one would imagine. For instance, make-up becomes an important factor when human countenances are being televised. CBS has gone and employed an expert, from the ranks of Paramount, for the work will be similar to that necessary in movieland. He is Bill Cameron and a wis at the work.

Billings as it may seem, a lady will not be permitted to don rouge because of the color fair. The color fair damsels must apply to their cheeks. Lips are to be tinted with blue. All powder used is specially prepared and is bluish white. Gentlemen whose upper lip simply must have a moustache, will be required to submit to Bill Cameron and his art while the decoration is made. Of all things!

Smile if you must, but please refrain from holding the above information up to ridicule. The information is quite authentic and the absolute truth. Of all things!

More than a few listeners are wondering why Bill has put so much emphasis on the subject that Amos and Andy would go on and on as stars for their sponsor. Here's the inside on it. There have been some gossiping over the land, slipping over individuals here and there that our great American boy might be getting ready to take the air without broadcasting. Such whispering was no doubt based on the advent of The Goldbergs as an additional radio offering of the same radio network makers. Anyway, the (radio) boys have been here for five years and nobody has been laid off.

Cancellation by NBC of "Frontier Days" scheduled for Saturday on Saturday is announced. A big radio set on out there in the open spaces and now Columbia is going to broadcast the broncho busting event alone at 5 p. m.

There is a reason why WGBH at Cleveland has not been heard during the past fortnight. A new transmitter is in use at Cuyahoga Heights, from that city, having been dedicated Monday night, as an NBC unit. WGBH has been a favorite with listeners everywhere for a long time.

Perhaps it has happened before, but few remember it. Radio editor rubbed elbows last night. There was Howard Fitzgerald, Steve Fitzgerald, Jack Brennan, Lloyd Greene, Frank Johnson and other very hungry fellow, all sitting at the same table with Gerald Harrison of The T. K. Network down at Shore Gardens. That did chestnut about a "good time was had."

Richard Bonelli, one of America's leading bartenders, graces the WEEL at 3:30 features his song. Among his offerings will be "Old Man River" and "On the Road to Mandalay." On the radio, WEEL at 3, and with him as guest artist at 3:30.

Television Requires Special Treatment

all is fitting as a report of the set together. * * *
Dean Archer, Boston bartender, whose serious business it is to comment for us on "The Love That Endured Society" gets away from any old and dried mastication occasionally and does it entertainingly. Listeners enjoyed his narrative on the fish farm he, came and how he feels his special trout, as heard through WEEL on Monday—he seemed to enjoy spinning the catchery yarn himself. * * *

Raiding old classics for present day music is causing no little comment among lovers of Wagner and Beethoven. As Felix Fernandez writes in, some of these modern composers would even try to steal a march on Sousa. * * *

POILLONS AVERT FRAUD SUIT

The Poillon sisters, veterans in litigation since the gay '90s, chalked up another court victory on their score today. In New York court of general sessions Charlotte was dismissed of a fraud charge against her sister and herself by her sturdy examination of a hotel manager, Frank Lawler, who charged fraud of $547.

Clad in mannish attire, Charlotte strode the courtroom with her thumbs in her armpits. She showed that credit of $500 was customary at the hotel and that the manager had accepted their "promise to pay."

The Poillon sisters have fought off breach of promise suits, theft, fraud, rent jumping and other charges.

ROYAL BERRIES FED TO 10,000

London, July 23 (AP)—Ten thousand persons thronged the gardens of Buckingham Palace today for a garden party given by King George and Queen Mary.

Among the guests were some of the statesmen who have been conferring on the crisis in Germany. The party was in accordance with a custom which has almost become a garden party ritual.

A warm sunny day made the garden party a most enjoyable one. The main building of the Central mills of Hamilton Woolen Co. is to be used for school purposes to relieve congestion.

RADIO ENGLISH IS GOOD, WHY CANNOT TALKIES FOLLOW SUIT?

By ROBERT E. ROGERS

THE IRISH OF BELFAST, we are told, are becoming alarmed about the Americanization of their people through the talking pictures. The dispatch says specifically Belfast, but I have no doubt that the same complaint might be heard in Dublin and other parts of the country.

This is only an echo of an alarm which in England reached such proportions that questions were asked in the House of Commons about the effect of the American pictures on English life. There was resentment even at the colonial capitals of the silent films, although those, as a matter of fact, might easily have been anglicized. But now with the talkies the American locations and accents are flooding the British Isles. Our cousins are viewing with alarm.

And well they may! There seems to be no real competition between British and American films even in Great Britain. The English seem unable to measure up to our standards of production. It is not a question of intelligence in the selection of stories, or the writing of them, nor in the perfection of the acting. The notorious fact that English actors over here are eagerly desired upon the stage for parts which the American actors seem not capable of handling would seem to show that the English actor and actress are not inferior to our own.

Our Mechanical Perfection

It is rather the technical perfection of our pictures which makes the British unable to compete. We have carried the art of the camera to an extraordinary height. The professional criticism seems to believe that in the aesthetic side of camera work the Germans and the Russians are making more interesting films, but that is a question of aesthetic taste. Certainly in more technical perfection of camera work our American producers, like Chuck Connors "gentleman," can do anything they want to do.

Unlimited money spent lavishly is, of course, the chief reason for this perfection. With this, and perhaps born out of this, a willingness to experiment on a magnificent scale and to accept the failures without a backward look. The professional critic seems to believe that in the aesthetic side of camera work the Germans and the Russians are making more interesting films, but that is a question of aesthetic taste. Certainly in more technical perfection of camera work our American producers, like Chuck Connors "gentleman," can do anything they want to do.

So the British and the Irish are flocking to the American talkies. The English novels of the past season show this influence. Novelists over there are much interested in the effect of the new picture palaces modeled on the American originals. They are no less interested in the effect of our pictures on their people.

The author of "The Water Gypsies," Mr. A. P. Herbert, conceived his heroine as one whose views of life had been excessively romanticized by the American films. The happy, young juvenile lead of J. R. Priestley's "Angel Pavement" found his escape from life at the American pictures.

The fact remains that most of us probably learn by seeing and hearing thought more easily and more rapidly than by either method singly. The combined impact is very strong. Foreigners have long complained that the manners of their countries were being seriously affected by the pictures of American life as conceived in Hollywood. We know how to take them with a grain of salt, and our more intelligent foreign critics warn their people that they are not to be regarded as typically American, but they cannot fail to have their effect on the mass guidance for good or for ill. Probably mostly for ill, as they certainly tend to present American life as being more rapid, luxurious, sensational, farcical or melodramatic than it really is.

We Know Our English Here

Now comes the spoken word to increase that impression. It is not easy even for us to detect the variations of vulgar accent and diction, from all parts of our country, slicked over with a few lessons in "stake English." Our foreign friends will learn an English that is not Bostonese, to say the least. I say Bostonese, because there is no doubt that the purest English in the United States is still spoken in Boston.

Furthermore, our present practice is to discard correct speech on the stage in favor of the phonographic reproduction of our habitual slovenliness and carelessness in diction and phraseology. We seldom hear on the screen the speech of cultivated ladies and gentlemen. When we do it is almost a safe bet that it is spoken by older persons who have had long training on the stage. But we do hear with terrible accuracy the natural speech of the gangster and bootlegger, the night club habitue, the dick and the bull, the professional athlete, the cash girl and the sort of boy who shouldn't go to college but does.

That is the kind of American which the good people in Dublin and Belfast, where they still speak English beautifully, are complaining about.

There is a bare possibility that the steady improvement in English diction of our professional radio performers may counteract the speech garbage of the screen. That will be good for us, but it won't help the foreigners much.

Talkie Reform Needed

Or will it? At the very moment I wrote those last words I heard over my radio a woman announcer on some domestic advertising program tell of a visit to her studio of a woman from Australia, who had been accustomed to listen to her morning broadcasts in the middle of the night! And she was immediately followed by a man who described the effect of American radio advertising in Argentina and Brazil. The people who understand English are probably few in number, but they are the people who matter. The boys who come to Technology from Central America and South America often speak excellent English.

So the quality of our radio speech is not unimportant even to the rest of the world. And, I repeat, the quality of our radio speech is good and is steadily growing better. If somebody could take the movie magnate in hand and make them see the importance of good English on the screen, and not so much of the American dialect, our English-speaking neighbors abroad might not resent the American talking picture as bitterly as they seem to be resenting it at present.

Sailor and Pal Who Robbed Companion in Quarrel Both Set Free

Robert, McClure, 23, of North Carolina, and Ralph Gordon, 33, of Missouri, left for Chatham today where they will visit Mrs. Glendower Evans and thank her for her efforts which resulted in their being granted pardons by Gov. Ely and the council yesterday.

The pair were serving sentence of 12 to 18 years for robbery. They were sentenced in Essex Superior Court in May, 1926, by Judge David Dillon.

After their visit to Mrs. Evans the two men will leave for Jamestown, N. C., where they both expect to be employed.

McClure then made for a telephone and called his mother on long distance to inform her of his release.

The two men were employed as seamen on an oil tanker and the robbery took place when they were on shore leave with another man named Carter. Intoxicated they became involved in an argument over the money they were spending and the pair assaulted and robbed Carter, according to police records.

McClure then made for a telephone and called his mother on long distance to inform her of his release.

Hurley Surprised at Failure to Contribute; Mayor Hits Backwardness

Superintendent Burke's statement came on the heels of a charge made by the mayor yesterday that the apathy of the $120,000 payroll of the supervising staff teachers and principals in the Boston schools, not a dollar has been contributed to the fund.

The mayor pointed out that the public works department, the lowest paid in the city government, had contributed $300 during the last year.

John J. Hurley, chairman of the school committee, expressed surprise that the teachers had not contributed. He said that he had hoped that they would cooperate in the fund.

SWEETLAND AND GIRL HELD

Louis A. Sweetland, 40, former Arlington tax collector, arrested as an alleged masquerader and his alleged accomplice, Mary V. Lemieux, were held today for the grand jury by Judge Joseph Botoli in Municipal Court.

Sweetland was held in $10,000 on counts. The girl was held in $500.

William V. Vinson, alleged Sweetland worker, will appear in court tomorrow.

Police say Sweetland employed several girls to cash checks for him.

The "trick" it is charged, was to rob mail boxes of bank statements and other papers to obtain signatures of persons, which he would duplicate on checks of small amounts.

Sweetland is alleged to be wanted in Brooklyn, Brighton, Rindge Park and other places in similar cities.

SUMMER LOVE LIKE A COLD—
IT MAY MEAN NOTHING

By HELEN ROWLAND

A SUMMER LOVE affair is like a Summer cold—it may mean nothing, or it may develop into something that may hang on all season, and that you'll have a hard time getting rid of in the Autumn.

After reading the details of some of the divorce cases and love troubles in the papers, these days, a woman with just a nice, average husband feels almost like rushing over and kissing him as he holds up and handing him a box of tissues.

Sometimes, a woman has to go to the altar three or four times before she discovers that marriage is bound to be the same old bitter disappointment if you keep on picking the same type of man.

After a man has been married and divorced the fashionable number of times, it takes something more than trifles, like a drop in the stock market, or even a car accident with a motor-truck, to make him nervous.

People living like a bear down into history as the most useless thing on earth, except possibly a girl's face.

It takes an awfully rainy Sunday to bring out annual religion in a golf-husband for a wife to persuade him to go to church.

Almost any modern man could tell you that Solomon was not the only man who ever had too many women in his life.

Old Cures for Warts; New Remedies

NOTHING IS more interesting than to read some of the hints and advice given in Mark Twain's stories.

A wart is a tumor of the skin, usually appearing in childhood. Of course, a wart may be found on some other part of the body and may be seen in adult life.

As a rule there is no pain attached to this tumor-like growth. A wart may cause pain if situated in a location where it becomes irritated, such as on the knuckle or along the nail. In such a case it is apt to crack and bleed, causing pain.

Warts that appear in large numbers on the backs of hands of children usually disappear spontaneously, or may do so after some sort of local treatment. Single warts which appear in adult life do not disappear so readily.

They may be removed by a knife or by caustics. Monks have resorted to it extensively used for the removal of warts.

The remedy should never be used without the approval of a physician. Too frequent applications may cause unpleasant damage.

Failure Has Unnerved Dancer

KRISTINE WOULD not have been so pained if he had walked out of the deep trance of a marionette to find himself in his hotel bed again. It felt very cold, his hands cramped, and his jaw clenched. His head was like a burning furnace and all the thousand and one things thrown into it began to swirl and spin.

"Well, are you content? Are you happy now? Are you getting to know life?" Kristine asked from her room. And Kristine, who had been so content, answered, "Yes, indeed."

On this evening the fifth of Kristine's appearance on the stage was positively empty. The audience, who were so much occupied that they looked at Kristine as if they were looking at a piece of art, now looked at her as if they were looking at a piece of art.

STRIKING NEW HAT STYLE

'Rushing' the Season
SKETCHED IN PARIS

The upper sketch shows a straw hat of white pique. Parallel insets cross the top of the crown over a foundation of black grosgrain, visible at the front between the roundings of the inset pieces. There is a small crisp bow of grosgrain at the side front. The second sketch shows a black pique straw from Mme. Jose. The crown is shallow and melon-shaped, fitting snugly over the top of the head. The narrow brim rolls up sharply at one side and over it are curled three small colored feather-tails, one red, one white and one green.

Variety of Cakes and Frosting

By MARTHA LEE

LET'S SEE, we were talking about cakes yesterday, weren't we, and we had the standard cake all baked and cooling on the rack.

To vary this, I have sketched a simple cake for instance. If you want to make a Chocolate cake, melt 2 squares of cooking chocolate over hot water and add it to the shortening, sugar and eggs.

For Marble Cake, melt the butter in half and in one-half add one square melted chocolate and 2 eggs, of milk. Drop the mixture in the pieces of the pan alternately into a greased pan and bake as you would the standard cake. Spread with Fudge Frosting.

Most about frostings tomorrow.

Faithfully yours,

Martha Lee

The Murder of the Choir Singer

By ANTHONY ARBOT

ON THE WAY to Lame Man's Court Dougherty folded his hands over his paunch and said:

"Even with that blood-stained coat, the watch and the ring, the lying abill, the lies about not believing there was anything wrong between the preacher and that woman, you still feel the case against Mrs. Saunders is full of holes, eh, Colt?"

"From the viewpoint of a jury, I should say so decidedly. You can make a newspaper case out of anything, but with Colonel Alexander Powell cross-examining the first witness you could summon, with Powell's false depositions, circumstantial evidence, and with that staid, gray-haired old Roman of a judge in the prisoner's box, I believe a cold jury would not be guilty without the jury leaving the courtroom."

Dougherty sighed.

"Say, I snapped, 'Don't you ever get tired of always being right?' You must know we're on the right track. I get a look at the jury and I believe that family is innocent, do you?"

"I was never more puzzled about anything in my life," confessed Dougherty. "All I tell you, the circumstantial evidence is so piling up, the discrepancies remain, and they are quite as important as the pieces of the puzzle that fit together."

"Oh, but the jury would give an eyewitness," murmured Dougherty. "Somebody who saw them."

"Small chance of an eyewitness when the murder was committed inside of a house—the main place in the world to do it. I won't be satisfied until I know who the little man was who sent the telegram that depicted the watchman away—the little man who kept the lumber for the boat."

"DOUGHERTY HOPEFUL."

"I know who he was," said Dougherty. "I'll prove it to you. I'll get through. Wall tell that telegraph clerk and those lumber men that I'm going to get a look at the man who sent the telegram that depicted the watchman away—the little man who kept the lumber for the boat."

"I know who he was," said Dougherty. "I'll prove it to you. I'll get through. Wall tell that telegraph clerk and those lumber men that I'm going to get a look at the man who sent the telegram that depicted the watchman away—the little man who kept the lumber for the boat."

PICTURE STORY OF SHARKEY-WALKER BATTLE

ROUND ONE—Sharkey shot a left for the chin, and Walker, who appears to be whistling "Something Good Will Come From That," blocks with his right. This was a fast, thrilling round, but generally awarded to Sharkey.

ROUND TWO—Walker cuddles Sharkey's left to his chest, prepared to back-flip his own left to the Squire's left ear. Even Sharkey admits Mickey did very well in this stanza, and the round was even.

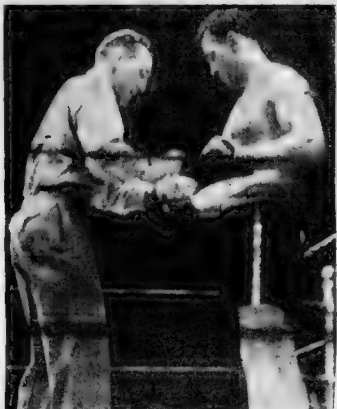

ROUND THREE—The Toy Bulldog, creeping up on Sharkey and barking furiously. It was just after this that Sharkey blasted three rights on Mickey's jaw and told him to stand up. This round was one of Sharkey's best.

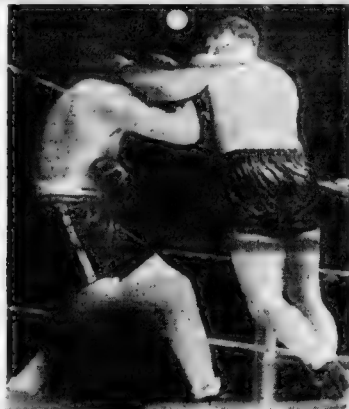

ROUND FOUR—The Chestnut Hill left again proved bothersome and Walker tried to chop it off. The blow landed lightly on the solar plexus, with the men in close. Sharkey had the best of this canto.

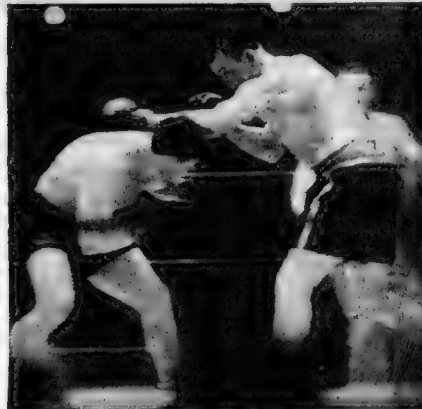

ROUND FIVE—This is not Ed George Bill Sonnenberg. Walker is down after a short right uppercut. Sharkey, to prevent himself from falling over Mickey, is giving him the barber's rub. Mickey got up at once. He was off balance when hit.

ROUND SIX—Referee Donovan's round by a large margin. He is shown giving Sharkey a proper lacing while Walker and Kearns step out for a hamburger sandwich. Mickey was bashed on the head considerably in this round.

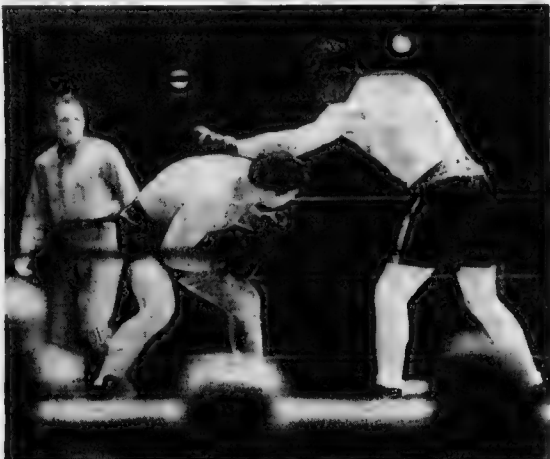

ROUND SEVEN—And here we have the boys in the well-known Merry Widow waltz, while Jack tries vainly for Mickey's bleeding optic, and Mickey gets a headlock. Both men worked hard in this rather gory session.

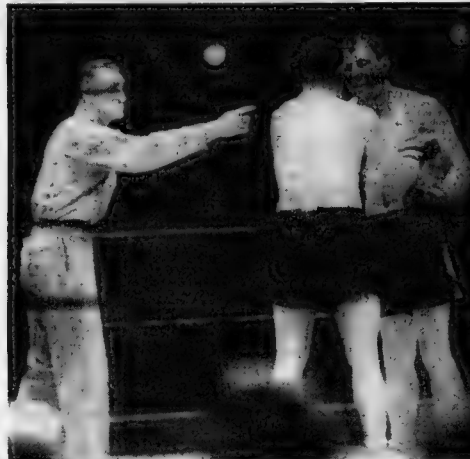

ROUND EIGHT—Walker ducks a left aimed at his bad eye. Sharkey appears to be getting a head on the customers. They reversed positions a second later and Sharkey landed a low one. Another foul, another howl. Mickey's round on foul.

ROUND NINE—The "good little man" poked Sharkey all over the map (and body, too) in this session, but against the Sharkey resch, like David, he needed a slingshot. At this time Mickey was in a fair way to win the decision.

ROUND TEN—Sharkey appears to have aimed this one at Referee Donovan. Walker, "screaming down," is reaching for the stepladder before making a counter attack. He landed solidly in the midriff, standing on the third rung as the bell rang. Both men worked hard in this round. Several punches landed, but more missed the target. Sharkey is getting ready for his desperate drive in the final rounds to keep from losing the decision to his toy opponent. That's the best he could hope for.

ROUND FIFTEEN—The great fight is over and the real controversy starts. "I pounded the far out of you," says Sharkey. "You're full of warm air," Walker replies. Says Referee Donovan, "Here, here, boys, don't get to quarreling." It's a draw.

Public health service advises all the workers to "yawn and stretch" frequently for relaxation. A good time to do it is while the boss is talking about his golf.

If an office worker yawns often enough he'll be permitted to relax permanently.

AMERICAN TRAGEDY.
(Boston, Minnesota, Ohio)
The people of Bartley were treated to a real bargain when the Edison Minstrel show was presented at that place Wednesday evening. A total of $235 was taken in at the gate and half of this was taken for the use of the opera house. They asked the boys to return and present the show again. But the local lads told them to go places.

"And the darkest hour for most women," snarls Genevieve, the kitchen cynic, "is just before the peroxide."

THE NEW FREEDOM.
(Phablet, Kansas)
After this date, will not be responsible for debts contracted only by myself. Otis B. Dye, 8001 Chestnut.

Oh, tell me, Mister Hoover, (You're such a brainy gent) Can I get a moratorium On eighteen months back rent?

Headline says—NEW CARDS INVENTED TO AID BRIDGE PLAYERS
They might be a big help. We know one bridge player who always needs new cards.

PRETTY SENTIMENT

And another thing you notice about the American home is a lot of empty bottles.

FAMOUS LAST WORDS
Remember now, I gotta get home early.
